5-5-02        The Old Carrabelle Hotel was a wonderful sojourn during the FAM tour for travel writers! Thank You for opening your lovely home to us and for your enjoyable and sincere hospitality. My stay here was one of comfort and fantastic companionship.

I wish you the greatest success in your new endeavor!

Sincerely,

Julie D. "the biker"

7-28-02        Kathy & Skip- Had a great time here especially enjoyed the serenade by your tree frog while relaxing on the veranda.

We will tell all our friends about your gracious hospitality.

8-2-02        Staying in Hemingway room reminded Tim & I how much we want to run away and create our own wonderful life adventure.

As newlyweds this was a wonderful little place to stop, breathe, enjoy the quiet...and dream.

The place is beautiful and comfortable.

Thank You-

Tim & Barbara S.

3-14-03        Thank you for a lovely reception. Restoration of the hotel has been achieved with loving care and attention.

Our stay here has been too short but we are sure to return again sometime. Carrabelle is a gem on the coast and we were much taken by the fact that it is retaining its "Olde World charm" and long may it do so. Being from England we appreciate all attempts at maintaining and retaining its originality.

11-03        Our stay could not have been better. Thank you so much for knowing how to create a restful atmosphere with a touch of "exotic"! It was fun to stay in such an old inn and wonder of the travelers who preceded us. Thanks again.

11-4-04 Had a wonderful time in your charming B&B. Kathy and Skip made us feel quite at home. Great atmosphere and good company. Keep up the good work!

3-4-05 Our 2nd visit to Florida. First visit to Panhandle and first B&B. Short- 2 night stay and sadly very wet day. But your peaceful hotel with the warm fire in the lounge and cosy chat about the area; things to see and do, its history and all sorts of other chat widened our knowledge about America and Americans – the very essence of travel. Thank you,

5-21-05 (Riverfront Festival-the Sand Sculptors) Dear Skip, dear Kathy, You have the cutest hotel all over the world. And the town is almost lovelable (sic). If we had known that we would have spent more time here. We also had a funny night at Jerry's with Kimmy!
So we'd like to come back and stay some more days here.
So far we wish there will be never any harm to this hotel and town from hurricanes or other catastrophes.
Best wishes from Germany

6-12-05 What a quaint town! We enjoyed walking and exploring. Your Bed & Breakfast is really homelike. Thanks for making us feel at home.

11-20-05 La chambre "bateau" est tres jolie – et tous les objets marins ont beaucoup de charme. Neu (?) aussi pur le chat "Zorro" qui aime beaucoup les "cuddles" (calins en francais).

3-12-06 Dear Kathy and Skip. It is always a pleasure to stay with you at the annual Carrabelle Reunion.

Hope we can make it next year. Good Luck

Hermann Blumhardt

(note: Our Camp Gordon Johnston WWII (veterans) reunion takes place every 2nd weekend in March. This guest was a German POW captured from Rommel's army in Africa, and spent the war baking bread here for our troops)

(final note: Sadly, Hermann didn't make it to the reunion the next year, he headed for the Camp Gordon Johnston reunion in the hereafter. He, like many WWII veterans we had the honor to get to know -including our fathers- was a remarkable person. Skip's dad, also now deceased, actually told Hermann that "My only view of Germany during the war was from the air!" We miss them all, tactful or not.)

3-24-06 What a home away from home! Our room was decorated beautiful, the common area was very homey and inviting (during the rain especially), and the verandas were a great place to "hang out". It's wonderful to see an old place restored to such charm. We'll be back.
